

Through Your Lens School Facilities Across America

Photo and Essay Contest

Feb. 1, 2011 – Mar. 7, 2011

Tell us, in photos or words, about your school building: what you are proud of and what you'd like to see changed. Be a detective, documenting and showing the world the good, bad and even the funny dimensions of your school building.

Your images and words will help raise awareness of the need for high quality school buildings for all students, teachers and communities.

Win Prizes and See Your Work Featured in Wash., DC. Selected photos and stories will be shown at a special exhibition in Washington, DC, and many more will be published in a Through Your Lens book and online gallery. (Five student winners will also receive prizes!)

To submit your photo or essay and for more information, please visit

www.ThroughYourLens.org

Who is eligible? The contest is open to students, teachers, school staff, parents, nurses and all members of the school community.
